

I strongly support these bills and hope that the committee will talk about them and move them forward. I believe it is very important to institute better legislation related to composting toilets and ecological water systems in Vermont.

Leslie Pelch, Bolton